How About Dinner and Movie? brings together community leaders and supporters in an effort to raise awareness for men and women in our community struggling with serious mental illness, homelessness and addiction.

How About Dinner and a Movie? - Reimagined

This signature event was created by Barbara Daane, a Lifetime Board Member and champion for Park Center. Every year, donors gather at the Belcourt Theatre to enjoy dinner by Dani Kates, drinks provided by Lipman Brothers and outbid each other on a fabulous silent auction.

This year will be a bit a different, but our goal is the same. We must raise much needed funds for Park Center and our members.

We want to provide a high-quality, at-home engaging experience for our guests. Special offerings will be made available to guests and an online auction will be conducted during the week of the event.

We want to have fun, but most importantly we want to shine a light on making lives better for those in our community.

Park Center

Park Center has been serving Nashville for 36 years, providing a place of hope and recovery for people experiencing serious mental illness, homelessness and addiction.

We meet people where they are and provide support through treatment, housing, day programs, homeless outreach and employment services. We provide hope and help to our members to navigate challenges and better live and work in the community.

All proceeds from How About Dinner and a Movie? benefit Park Center.
